Classification Grid: 42

Immediate Supervisor: LSCSS Executive Director;

Bargaining Unit: UFCW Local 1518

Approved on:

Lower Similkameen Community Services Society is a multi-service non-profit and registered charity whose mission is to promote and provide excellent programs that enhance the quality of life by continuing to improve the social conditions, housing, health and education of our citizens.

Job Summary:

Provides PEACE Program counselling, education and advocacy support to children and youth who have experienced domestic violence. Provides emotional and parenting support for parents regarding the impact on their children of witnessing violence.

Activities include psycho-educational community and school based workshops, groups, individual support and one on one counselling services from a trauma-informed, resiliency and feminist based perspective.

Additionally, as an organization that provides support to women, girls, Two Spirit, trans and non-binary peoples related to gender-based violence, the Canadian Women's Foundation has provided funding to increase our ability to respond to increases in service needs related to the COVID-19 pandemic. This funding is to support activities that address, prevent and reduce gender-based violence.

The Community Counsellor will provide services to support to women who have experienced gender-based violence, assault or abuse; and to youth, families and men whose lives may have been impacted by gender-based violence and want to improve their relationships and manage conflict.

Working with referrals from LSCSS and other service providers in the Lower Similkameen, the Community Counsellor may assist with clients from the following programs: PEACE, Victim Services, Stopping the Violence, Family Support, Child & Youth Mental Health, or provide services for self-referred clients.

The Counsellor will be experienced with indigenous engagement and cultural safety in their service delivery.

Job Duties:

1. Provide assessment services to gather case history and other relevant service information. Identify and assess the immediate emotional/behavioral issues that have led the client to seek or be referred to services. Assess the safety of clients and supports them in reducing safety risks.

2. Provide professional expertise to assist clients to establish appropriate goals and service plans for services. Use a variety of techniques to assist clients to set and obtain goals during sessions paying attention to individual clients' needs and outcomes.
3. Engage in a variety of trauma informed and feminist based service strategies to help meet the needs of women, youth, families and men whose lives have been impacted by gender-based violence.
4. Provide individual and group counselling to clients from a feminist and trauma-based perspective using a diversity of modalities and techniques including therapeutic group counselling and self-skill workshops.
5. Provide age appropriate supports for children & youth.
6. Support caregivers who are survivors of abuse by providing information, and where possible, support groups and individual counselling sessions.
7. Provide referrals and linkages to other related services, including clinical treatment, when agreed to by the clients.
8. Liaise with existing supports and services for clients to promote seamless and integrated care.
9. Identify community resources available to meet clients' needs, such as transition houses, victim assistance programs, and mental health services, and provide related information to clients.
10. Develop and implement on-line and off-line workshops to strengthen families by breaking the cycle of abuse. Collaborates with co-facilitator(s) in conducting groups.
11. Prepare and submit all reports, service summaries and other program documentation requested in a timely manner. Maintain and provide statistics and reports regarding service delivery as required.
12. Participate in quality assurance, support supervision/consultation, intake and staff meetings.
13. Work collaboratively with other community agencies and groups to identify and provide mental health services.
14. Keep up-to-date with program and agency policies, procedures and practices, as well as with software collection systems.
15. Participate in professional development activities in order to stay current in the field of trauma informed counseling, treatment and interventions. Performs other related duties as assigned.
